

CONVERSE CONSULTANTS

Converse Consultants is seeking an experienced Staff Engineer in our Monrovia office.

Staff Engineer (CA, Morovia)

Plan, design and prepare analyses for geotechnical engineering projects using skills to design as well as inspect civil engineering structure. Analyze project data, design programs, maps and draw and read construction documents. Assist project managers with project delivery, reports, construction administration, hand calculations for projects and coordination issues. Develop an in-depth knowledge related to soils and foundation interaction and be able to produce analysis reports to show the soil and foundation interaction. Perform lab and field work related to developing Geotechnical and Engineering reports. Required to interpret this data and make recommendations and proposals on the project. Requires a master's degree in civil engineering or foreign equivalent. Please mail resumes to 717 Myrtle Ave., Monrovia, CA, 91016.

Converse Consultants offers a competitive benefits package and diverse project work. EOE MFDV encouraged to apply!